Bride-To-Be Given Surprise Shower

By BERNADETTE WEBER
FR 5-2465

Ellen Morris was again surprised on Wednesday of last week with a lingerie shower given for her at the home of Miss Shirley Parrish, 6420 Sharyne Lane. Guests present were Miss Joyce Noone, Betty Morris, Janet Cash, Martha Gruver, Mary Ellen Edmond, Jane Quinlivan, Pat Merola, Barbara O'Honlon, and Mesdames May Patton, Lula Murphy, Terry Rodgers, Zeela Heffrin, Florence Gaboury, Evelyn Noone, Mildred Arnt, Shirley Parrish, Margaret Denham, May McCabe, Bertha Roche and Mrs. William Morris, the mother of the bride-to-be.

Helping Jennifer Gill celebrate her eighth birthday and sharing in the games and refreshments were Jane Carlton, Stephen Saks, Deanna Deeble, Audrey Touchstone, Nancy Drumwright, Deane Teach, Penny Hopkins and sister and brothers Janet, Joe and Tony.

On Friday Penny Hopkins had a birthday party and those present were Wendy Schmitz, Jane Carlton, Jennifer Gill, Jay Kirby, Robert Park, Sidney Sparks, Pamela and G. Irving Whitney, Leslie Pomeroy, Lyn and Lynda Doyle and sister Kathy Hopkins.

The Third Annual Choral Concert will be given in the Redondo High School on June 27. The first half will consist of modern folk songs, ballads and spirituals. The last half will be a musical production entitled "Twenty-three Skiddoo" depicting the atmosphere of the "Roaring 20s." The choral director is Mrs. Barbara Mabin, and the dramatic director is Ray Wallace. Anyone wishing to purchase tickets may contact the chairman, Mrs. Phyllis Bennett, at Frontier 5-2210, or call Barbara Wallace at Frontier 5-3737.

Carson School Gets New PTA Presidents

By GWEN BARKAN
FAIRfax 8-0869

June again, vacation looms and organizations everywhere are installing new officers. Looking forward to busy years are the new PTA presidents of our local schools. Mrs. C. W. Wittenburg heads Carson St., while Mrs. L. Martinez will wield the gavel for newly-formed Dolores St. PTA. Mrs. R. Snyder is president-elect at Catskill, and Mrs. Ross is first president of the new 232nd Pl. School. May they all have wonderful and rewarding years!

Cub Scouts of Pack 230-C sponsored by Carson St. PTA, prepared an animal display for "Scout-O-Rama," which was held in the Coliseum last week-end. Headed by the Pack mascot, "Bumper Jr.," a little goat, the booth displayed white mice, turtles, frogs, a rooster, a chinchilla, chickens, rabbits and ducks.

Mrs. M. Q. Wallace, principal of Carson St. School, attended the monthly luncheon meeting of the Harbor Area Welfare meeting in Wilmington on Wednesday.

Dolores St. PTA feted the teachers of the school with a pot luck luncheon on June 4, in honor of Teachers' Day. The guests of honor were surprised with corsages of baby orchids for the women and carnations for the men. Mrs. R. Minchow as chairman was assisted by Mrs. A. A. Dowlat, Gene Lawson, J. Powell and G. Bacus.

It's visiting day for the children of the A-6 class at Carson St. They've gone for a preview of next year, to visit the junior high at Wilmington, and this afternoon all will have their pictures taken. Speaking of pictures—all the children at Carson St. will have theirs taken next week, and parents may buy one to treasure.

Journeying to Eagle Rock last Thursday to attend the final meeting of the 10th District PTA were Mrs. J. Spence, C. W. Wittenburg, and A. Barkan from Carson St. PTA; Mrs. R. Snyder of Catskill and Mrs. V. Weech of Dolores St. Carson St. received an achievement evaluation award for having obtained all association goals. To Mrs. C. Johnson, also of Carson St., goes credit for winning for her organization a Magazine award.

And to all the little kids with measles we say: "Aren't you glad you got them before school let out?"
